

Title

Barry Island

Client

Barry Island Property Company

Location

Barry, South Wales

Project

The client is looking to redevelop the well-known Barry Island Pleasure Park, South Wales, into a mixed use development. The new plans consist of leisure facilities, retail units, a bar/restaurant area and residential units.

Our input

Asbri supported the submission of planning application, coordination of the development team, and liaison with the Local Planning Authority. We also worked with statutory consultees, and monitored the application.
