Llanishen Extra Care

Client

Linc Cymru Housing Association

Location

Cardiff

Project

Linc-Cymru specialises in affordable housing, social care and health in Wales. Its newest development of 102 affordable apartments is situated at the former AWE site, Caerphilly Road in Llanishen Cardiff. The homes are being built for older people and those with special needs.

Our input

Asbri has acted on behalf of the client, using all its experience in healthcare-related planning applications to ensure the success of this project, in a busy area of Cardiff. With Asbri's support, the planning application was successful. The scheme was completed in the Spring of 2010.
